

Mackinac Island

2 Nights / 3 Days

- 2 Nights accommodation in Mackinaw city or St-Ignace* at a full service hotel with indoor pool. *Possible to stay on Mackinac Island.
- 2 Breakfast
- 2 Dinners
- Colonial Michilimackinac – Explore this reconstructed 1715 French fur-trading village which features re-enactments from British 1770s occupation and the American Revolution era.
- Historic Mill Creek Discovery Park - It's the harmonic sound of nature, the sawdust smell of history, and the feel of wind zipping over your face. There are moments in life that make you feel alive, and then there are moments that also make you feel empowered. Historic Mill Creek Discovery Park is one of those moments
- Mackinac Island Round Trip Ferry - Step back in time on Mackinac Island where the only mode of transportation allowed is by horse, bicycle or on foot.
- Horse Drawn Carriage Guided Tour of the island. Discover this historic isle and legendary points with this sightseeing tour.
- Tour Fort Mackinac - Where history comes alive! Constructed by British soldiers during the American Revolution, the fort served as a sentinel in the Straits of Mackinac for 115 years. Trace the footsteps of British and American troops as you explore 14 original 18th and 19th century buildings, enjoy informative and interactive exhibits, and watch our 1880s soldiers play concerts of military music, fire rifles on the parade ground and a cannon salute over the harbor.
- Two hour bike rental - Discover the island at you own pace with your friends. Enjoy some free time for shopping in the village and don't forget to sample Mackinac's famous world famous fudge.

- Butterfly Conservatory – Discover this all-glass Conservatory with beautiful lush plants with hundreds of butterflies. Observe these fascinating creatures as they fly within a specially designed butterfly greenhouse. Knowledgeable curators and colorful exhibits explain the metamorphosis from egg to larvae (caterpillar) to pupa (chrysalis) and finally to the adult butterfly.

Many other activities are available. Here are some suggestions:

- Haunted History Tours – Ghostly happenings on the Island? Some say...indeed. Adventure into the unknown. Cloaked tours guides escort "spirited guest" through the streets of Mackinac Island and frequently stop to tell an eerie of the islands many specters and legends as well as the history behind each location.
- Maritime Museum - Housed in an old observation tower, the museum is filled with educational information. There are four floors of exhibits on the themes of water, wind, waves, and wakes; shipwrecks of the straits; building the Mighty Mac; and lighthouses of the straits. Students will be thrilled by the view of the Island and Straits.

Extend your classroom history program with a trip to Mackinac Island and learn on-site Michigan's state history & heritage. Many students have said that all the things there're learning in the class fall right into place when there're on the island
