

Michigan Fall Color Tour

5 Day/ 4 Night Group Tour

Five Days & Four Nights of Glorious Color in Northern Michigan

When over 19 million acres of woods slowly explode in a frenzy of color and the state of Michigan is in its annual blaze of glory, there's no better place to be. Find yourself relaxing on the 660' long front porch of the Grand Hotel on Mackinac Island, after dining at the hotel's extensive and delicious buffet. Take a horse drawn taxi ride on this romantic resort island.

When autumn arrives in Michigan, that's the time to see the dynamic colors of a trillion trees aflame along the highways, country roads and coastlines. Be prepared to be amazed and take in a little history at the same time. The majestic Straits of Mackinac, and the magnificent Mackinac Bridge, acts as a vista connecting the past, present, and future. Climb the tower of Old Mackinac Point Lighthouse and breathe in the spectacular view as generations of lighthouse keepers did before you.

- Local Step on guide for a 75 minute historical tour of Mackinaw City, including Old Mackinac Point Lighthouse.
- Enjoy the ride on the Ferry to Mackinac Island, where you will step back in time on this romantic resort island.
- Horse drawn Mackinac Island Carriage Tour of the Island. See natural landmarks such Arch Rock and Sugar Loaf, and learn about the island's rich Michigan history.
- Fort Mackinac, history comes alive when you shoulder a rifle, dance on the parade ground, or fire a cannon.
- The GRAND HOTEL's extensive and delicious lunch buffet, and free time to spend relaxing on the 660' long front porch. Take a horse drawn taxi back into downtown and enjoy the rest of the afternoon exploring the island on your own. Buy some fudge!
