Here are some suggestions:

- ❄️ Dogsledding Excursion – Become one with winter: go on a dogsledding adventure! Before heading off, make friends with these magnificent animals who await only your signal to spring into action. Learn how to drive the sled yourself with the help of a professional guide, also known as a “musher”.
- ❄️ Snowboarding & skiing at Stoneham or Mont Sainte-Anne Resorts - Fans of every kind of skiing, come take advantage of the exceptional conditions available in Québec! With an average annual snowfall of 3 m (10 ft.) from November to April, it's pure bliss!
- ❄️ Winter camping Experience – Spend a night in the forest in a Prospector's camp or an Iglou! Fully equipped, these two types of camps will keep you warm and will make you see Québec's winters from a new point of view.

While the rest of Canada hibernates, Québec comes alive with Carnaval de Québec: the world's largest winter carnival.

Discover nature at its best through a wide range of outdoor activities.

For a truly French Canadian winter experience, it's hard to beat what Québec City has to offer.
